24 HOURS IN TOKYO JAPAN

≜ Tokyo in 24 Hours: Luxury on a Budget Itinerary

06:30 AM

Wake Up to a Jaw-Dropping Skytree View

* Hotel Recommendation:

ONE@Tokyo - Stylish, affordable luxury with rooftop views of the Tokyo Skytree

- Designed by renowned architect Kengo Kuma
- Rooftop lounge with panoramic views
- Night stays around $100–USD 150 it varies, depending on the season
- 🥗 Grab a guick latte from their chic ground-floor café before heading out.

₹ 7:30 AM – Sunrise Walk at Sumida Park

- Just a short walk from your hotel
- 🌼 In spring, the cherry blossoms along the Sumida River are surreal
- Perfect for quiet reflection or early photo ops of Skytree glowing in the morning sun.

🤏 8:30 AM – Luxury Sushi Breakfast at Toyosu Market

- Book a sushi counter experience at Sushi Daiwa or Sushi Dai
- World-class freshness without Michelin prices
- Pro tip: Arrive early or reserve a spot to avoid long lines.

$\mathbb{O}$ 11:30 AM - Matcha Experience in a Hidden Teahouse

- † Sakurai Japanese Tea Experience (Omotesando)
- Quiet, intimate space with handcrafted matcha & seasonal wagashi (sweets)
- A modern tea ceremony perfect for photos & inner calm

1:00 PM – Lunch with a View: Shibuya Sky Deck Café

- Take the elevator up to Shibuya Sky, then have a casual lunch at the café
- Lenjoy breathtaking views over Tokyo, including Mt. Fuji on clear days
- Lunch: Bento sets or gourmet sandwiches

3:00 PM – Digital Art Immersion at teamLab Planets

- Walk barefoot through water, mirrors, and floating flower universes

5:30 PM – Rooftop Onsen with a View

Thermae-Yu (Shinjuku) – a modern onsen with a semi-open-air bath

- Affordable luxury: Day passes around $18–USD 25
- Rent a yukata and fully relax like a local
- Optional spa treatments are available for extra pampering

- Asakusa View Hotel 26th Floor Restaurant
- Mid-range dining with gorgeous Skytree and cityscape views
- Elegant Japanese or French-Japanese fusion meals
- Dinner course: Around $30–USD 50

- 1-hour evening cruise with Skytree lit up in all its glory
- Soft music, glowing bridges, romantic atmosphere
- Around $15-USD 20

- Head up to the rooftop once more to watch the glowing Skytree
- 💹 A quiet, magical end to an unforgettable Tokyo day
- All This For Under $200–USD 250 (Luxury Feel, Budget Smart)

